

"A Christmas Carol"

by Charles Dickens

4th Sunday in Advent, 20th December at 5.15pm
at the Canberra Christian Community Chapel, Hackett

A shortened version told by storyteller Claire Hayashi with a little help from her friends.

Claire will delight us again with her art, bringing alive the Spirit of Christmas as did Dickens when his story was first published on 19th December 1843.

Time: 5.15pm - 8pm

Entry: generous donation to The Christian Community

Audience: everyone is warmly invited to be there and also invite friends, and be aware it's about 80 minutes of artful storytelling.

We will share a light supper afterwards - please bring food to share

Note: Clare will also be telling "A Christmas Carol" for an Anthroposophical Society gathering on the 3rd Sunday in Advent, 13th December at 2.30pm at Riita Korpinen's Kindergarten at the Orana School, Weston
