THE CHANGE OF HEART AND MIND
AS PREPARATION FOR THE TRANSFORMING ACT OF HUMAN CONSECRATION

Sunday 18th July 11:30am

In discussions with Rudolf Steiner in June 1921, the theologians who would later become the founding priests of The Christian Community were engaged with the question:

How can the spiritual worlds be made accessible again to human beings?

This question led those present to a consideration of ritual.
How do we experience The Act of Consecration today
as an answer to this question, and how can our preparation bring the question of our relationship to the spirit into a deeper and more conscious reality?
